Ecija's 6th most wanted arrested

By MAGTANGGOL C. VILAR

CABANATUAN CITY – Nueva Ecija's "No. 6 Most Wanted" was arrested by police who received a tip that he had been hiding in far-away Isabela.

Senior Superintendent Napoleon C. Taas, Nueva Ecija Police Provincial Office (FPO) director, identified the suspects as Juanito Arellano, subject of an arrest warrant for murder as issued by Guimba Regional Trial Court

Branch 31 Judge Napoleon Sta. Romana.

Case records show that Arellano is the principal suspect in the killing of one Alex Columbina, of Barangay Maturanoc, Guimba, Nueva Ecija on Mar. 6, 1992 for which he was once the No. 1 Most Wanted Man in Guimba with a P40,000 bounty for his arrest.

Arellano is set for turnover to the Guimba court to face trial.
